[I have a small collection of gold coins that I am anxious to dispose of.]

Mr. Chapman.-

Dear Sir -

I have a small collection of gold coins. that I am anxious to dispose of. and your name has been given me to correspond with - as to its - value. I know the - condition of coin determines its - value - Most of mine are in perfect - condition.

I have a gold coin that - corresponds with - our $20.00 good price in size, dated 1718 with Medici

coat-of arms on one side, and bunch of flowers on other in perfect-condition,- also two Roman coins one coin with-florentine-lily-I can not-describe them.- would have to bring the-coins to you I think, to know their-value. There is a $50.00 gold piece octagon in shape, Eagle stamped on face-and just-circles on back,- California slug they call it, also a round $50.00 California gold piece - are the $8.00 gold pieces valuable; and the $1.00, will you tell me the best way to dispose of these coins to bring the most money. I have quite a number of them - also pennies and half pennies five cent pieces that are uncalled because the cents are not further on them, a number of proof sets in silver a set of good coins issued the Jubilee year of the Queen of England, many foreign gold coins - modern - etc -

Will you write me what you think best for me to do?

Very truly yours—

Mrs. Hamilton S. White.
